Appeal from the United States
District Court for the Northern District of Iowa.

[UNPUBLISHED]

Submitted: September 23, 1997
Filed: September 25, 1997

Before FAGG, BOWMAN, and MURPHY, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM.

Keith Arthur Chambers, an inmate at the Iowa State Men's Reformatory, filed a complaint under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 (1994) alleging defendants were violating Iowa law and his Eighth and Fourteenth Amendment rights by placing inmates from Administrative Segregation on a chain gang. The District Court¹ dismissed the complaint pursuant to 28 U.S.C.A. § 1915A(b)(1) (West Supp. 1997).

After careful review of the record and Chambers's brief on appeal, we conclude that the District Court's judgment was correct.

Accordingly, we affirm. See 8th Cir. R. 47B.

A true copy.

Attest:

CLERK, U.S. COURT OF APPEALS, EIGHTH CIRCUIT.

¹The Honorable Michael J. Melloy, Chief Judge, United States District Court for the Northern District of Iowa.
